Katie Fulara Vinge defends clients in civil litigation, with a focus on construction injury and defect and professional liability. Her clients appreciate both her advocacy and her pragmatic approach in order to best frame a defense that fits each client's unique needs. Her experience and concern allow clients to have an overarching understanding of the legal process and how it directly impacts them. Ms. Vinge represents corporate and individual clients in both state and federal courts.

Outside of the office, she enjoys spending time with her family on the Northwest Side of Chicago.
