

CHRISTINE D. BUSHNELL

Associate

Springfield, IL
217-993-7154

Christine.Bushnell@heplerbroom.com

The cornerstone of Christine D. Bushnell's practice is defending clients in mass torts and civil litigation. She has successfully defended clients in a broad array of matters including medical malpractice, personal injury, premises liability, dram shop, and construction defect.

Prior to joining HeplerBroom, Ms. Bushnell worked at a boutique law firm in Portland, Oregon, where she specialized in insurance defense. Ms. Bushnell gained valuable insight when she clerked for the Honorable Adrienne C. Nelson and the Honorable Shelley D. Russell in the Oregon Judicial Department.

When not practicing law, Ms. Bushnell spends time with her husband and chasing around her young son. She also enjoys exploring Illinois.

Results

JULY 31, 2025

Koepeke and Bushnell Obtain Significantly Lower Award in Macoupin County Premises Liability Trial

PRACTICES

Class & Mass Tort Actions

Medical & Healthcare
Malpractice

Pharmaceutical & Medical Devices

Products Liability

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Illinois
- Oregon

EDUCATION

- Lewis & Clark Law School, J.D., 2016
- Texas State University, B.S. in Criminal Justice, 2003

Law School Honors/ Involvement

- Academic Enhancement Program
- Student Director

Honors

Professional Associations

- Sangamon County Bar Association

Insights

Blog Posts

OCTOBER 29, 2025 | BLOG

Illinois Appellate Court Interprets “Claims” Broadly and Adheres to Two-Year Statute of Limitations

MAY 15, 2025 | BLOG

Missouri Appellate Court Examines Requirements for Insurers Regarding Notice for Non-Renewal of Policies

DECEMBER 3, 2024 | BLOG

Defending the Latest Class Actions: GLP-1 Injectables for Diabetes and Weight Loss

- Animal Law Review
 - Associate Editor
- Andrea Swanner-Redding Scholarship
- Cornelius Honor Society
- Health Law Society
 - Treasurer
- Lewis & Clark Legal Clinic
- Lewis & Clark Tax Clinic
- Scholar List